Egocentric Biochemical Video-and-Language Dataset Release Agreement

Introduction

The goal of the Egocentric Biochemical Video-and-Language (BioVL) Dataset is to develop new techniques for biochemical vision and language research, such as visual captioning, action recognition, and video-text alignment. Kyoto University has copyright on the data and is the principal distributor of the BioVL dataset.

Consent: The researchers agree to the following restrictions on the BioVL dataset

1. Redistribution

Without prior written approval from Kyoto University, the BioVL dataset, in whole or in part, will not be further distributed, published, copied, or disseminated in any way or form whatsoever, whether for profit or not. This includes further distributing, copying or disseminating to a different facility or organizational unit in the requesting university, organization, or company.

2. Modification and Commercial Use

Without prior approval from Kyoto University, the BioVL dataset, in whole or in part, may not be changed or used for commercial purposes.

3. Requests for the BioVL dataset

All requests for the BioVL dataset will be forwarded to Kyoto University Principal Investigator.

4. Publication Requirements

In no case should the still frames be used in any way that could cause the original subject embarrassment or mental anguish. Data of human subjects is provided in coded form (without personal identifying information). Subject consent permits publication (paper or web-based) of the data (including image data) for scientific purposes only.

5. Citation and Reference

All documents and papers that report on research that uses the BioVL dataset will acknowledge the use of the dataset by including an appropriate citation to the following:

Taichi Nishimura, Kojiro Sakoda, Atsushi Hashimoto, Yoshitaka Ushiku, Natsuko Tanaka, Fumihito Ono, Hirotaka Kameko, and Shinsuke Mori. "Egocentric Biochemical Video-and-Language Dataset," The 4th Workshop on Closing the Loop Between Vision and Language in conjunction with ICCV2021.

6. Publications to Kyoto University

A copy of all reports and papers that are for public or general release that use the BioVL dataset are appreciated for forwarding upon release or publication to Kyoto University Principal Investigator.

7. No Warranty

The provider of the data makes no representations and extends no warranties of any kind, either expressed or implied. There are no expressed or implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, or that the use of the material will not infringe any patent, copyright, trademark, or other proprietary rights.
